A Dynamic, Ecstatic Celebration of Love, Life and Liberation

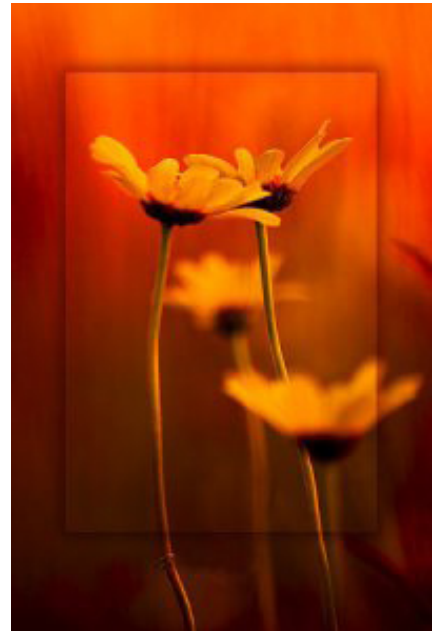

with Anakha Coman and David Franklin

Depart from the mundane and enter into the mystical, a sanctuary where our minds open, hearts awaken, spirits soar, and bodies tremor in the presence of Sacred Love. Become stirred into a wild abandon of joy where worries dissolve in delight and fears melt in the heat of elation. Feast on a mysterious concoction of mystical erotic delights that will send you spiraling into wild communion with essence, radiance, desire and sweet surrender. Recline in the arms of grace as we remember and celebrate all that is human and all that is Divine within us, between us and among us.

As the fire builds and euphoria rises we remember the living truth of who we are and why we are – the true essence of our being which is nothing less than the miracle of Love itself!

Join us for an intimate evening of allurement – opening your heart, awakening your senses, blowing your mind, and titillating your soul through sacred ritual, ecstatic dance, devotional chanting, mystical erotic poetry, joy-full play, connection and communion, sensuous nourishment and erotic and passionate music. We will gently guide you on this journey, creating spaciousness for exploring your essential self and your authentic connections with others. Are you ready to bask in the sanctuary love, and experience your own awakening to Love's presence?

This experience is a celebration of Love in all her many expressions – agape, eros, philia, storge and thelema, and is elegantly designed for everyone called to express and experience Sacred Love -- friends, lovers, partners and community.
